FLEECED OF HIS MILLIONS, OHIO MAN BEGS

CHICAGO.—(By Associated Press)—Beggings the turn of "at least a little of the millions—to be exact $2-500,000," alleged to have been obtained from him by John W. Worthington, Charles W. French, and their associates, a letter from Z. W. Davis, a director of the Winton Automobile Company, of Cleveland, forms the latest link in the evidence against a band of alleged swindlers now under federal indictment, federal agents said today.

The letter was intercepted by government officials. It was addressed to French at a Chicago loop hotel, where there is a suite maintained by French, which was raided yesterday. Federal officers said they recovered securities valued at a million dollars in the raid.

Davis' letter of six pages, dated August 5, was a plea for his wife and children, left without aid from those who obtained his fortune, and the Cleveland former millionaire declared he would be "forced to the only alternative—suicide." Davis also was a former president of the Diamond Portland Cement Company and the Globe Stove Company.

The letter addressed to French said:

"Please do not take what I am writing to you as a whine. I am not in the habit of crying after I have lost.
If I were the only one to be considered, I would not care.
"But there are others who are entirely dependent on me for a livelihood. It is for that reason that I am now forced to beg you to return at least a little of the millions
—to be exact, $2,500,000—which you and your associates
have taken away from me in the last two years."

Worthington, French, Owen T. Evans and Alva Harsh-

man are under indictment. Davis also is under indictment, but has protested that he was made a dupe by the ring-
leaders of the ring.

CANTON—"It is all news to me," said Z. W. Davis, Canton and Cleveland manufacturer, when asked today regarding notes bearing his name as president of the Winton Automobile Company, of Canton, and which were used by Chicago men in an effort to borrow $30,000 in that city.

Davis left Canton for Cleveland early today. He divides his time between the two cities. Altho he has a large residence here he seldom occupies it. He is a director in the Winton company, automobile manufacturers, of Cleveland, and is president of the Diamond Portland Cement Company, at Middlebranch, near Canton. He also has numerous other industrial interests.

PLAN OF SWINDLE RING REVEALED

Confession of $6,000,000 Gang's
Work Secured in Chicago.

NEW SCHEMES LAID BARE

Story Is Told By R. E. Kohn to U. S. Officials.

CHICAGO.—(By United Press)
—A complete confession of the workings of an alleged $6,000,000
swindle ring was made today by Rudolph E. Kohn, government officials announced as round-up of members of the gang continued.

Kohn's story, according to District Attorney John V. Clinchy, in charge of the investigation, revealed new schemes of the "swindle trust"
running into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

WALKS INTO TRAP

Kohn was caught red-handed by Clinchy, who posed as a credit man for a securities house to which the gang attempted to sell $30,000
worth of notes signed with the name of Z. W. Davis, Cleveland millionaire.

Revealed nearly $2,000,000 worth of spurious securities seized when Charles W. French, "the Wolf of LaSalle-st" and partner of John W.
Worthington, was arrested, officials
today started searching for other alleged fraudulent securities
amounting to millions of dollars
after Kohn told his story.

The details of the huge conspiracy
said to have been revealed by Kohn,
were withheld pending arrest of six additional alleged members of the gang for whom warrants were issued. Six of the accused leaders are already held.

Authorities indicated that the other deals, however, were to be engineered thru the American Rubber company, of which Kohn was vice-president. Before his arrest, Kohn offered to sell $500,000 worth of notes of the American Rubber Company to Clinchy, who was taken then posing as "Mr. Smith, credit man" for the securities company which discounted the notes in the $30,000 deal.

On raiding French's rooms $700
worth of the American Rubber Company notes were seized.

CLEVELAND.—(By Associated Press)—Elmer Garber of Cleveland, said to be a former secretary of Charles W. French, arrested in Chicago yesterday in an alleged swindling operation, was taken into custody by federal officials here today charged with misuse of the mails.

Z. W. Davis of Canton and Cleveland, director of the Winton Automobile Company of Cleveland, said to have been swindled out of a large sum of money by Chicago men, came here today from Canton. Davis was reluctant to talk. He would neither admit nor deny that the signatures on the $30,000 worth of notes which Rudolph Kohn attempted to sell in Chicago, purporting to have been issued by the Winton Company, and signed by Davis, were forgeries.

"I don't know what to make of it all," Davis said. "It looks as tho
they have me connected with this man Worthington and with French.
I don't know much about Worthington, except that he was a banker.
"I have a lot of paper out, the same as any other man who occupied with financial transactions."

Asked if the notes on which the attempt was made to borrow $30-000 at Chicago were forgeries or whether they actually bore his signature, Davis said:

"Suppose it was my signature—
supposing it was my name that was signed to the papers, would there be anything wrong in that?"

AKRON.—(By Associated Press)
Charles K. Strobel, president of the Charles K. Strobel Real Estate
Company, was arrested last night
and turned over to United States Deputy Marshal J. F. Sawkan of Cleveland.

Strobel, according to police, is wanted in connection with an alleged $30,000 swindle scheme for which five men were arrested in Chicago yesterday.

Strobel said he was unaware of any federal violation.

"If there is anything wrong with the transaction I do not know about it," he told police.

PROTEST IS MADE

State Board Objects to Suspension of Ford Rate Cut.

A protest that will be of benefit to Lima, if hearkened to by the inter-state commerce commission at Washington, was sent to that body
Tuesday by the state utilities commission at Columbus, against the order of the interstate commerce commission suspending the reduction of freight rates voluntarily made by Henry Ford's railroad, the D. T. &
I., according to a dispatch from Columbus.

The Ohio utilities commission declares such action unjust and a usurpation of authority and con-
duive to great hardship to the people of Ohio, in that they will have to pay the higher rates. A reduction of twenty per cent by the Ford railroad was to have become effective September 1.

POLICE BAFFLED OVER LOST GIRL

Cincinnati Child, 9 Years Old, Mysteriously Disappears.

SWARTHY MAN SUSPECTED

Brief News Notes Gathered From Ohio Cities.

CINCINNATI.—(By Associated Press)—Despite the efforts of neighbors and the police to locate her, no trace has been found of Freda Hornberger, nine-year-old daughter of John Hornberger, city employee, who disappeared from her home here last Sunday.

A widespread search has been started for a man of swartthy complexion, said by playmates of the little girl to have been observed following her about on numerous occasions within the past few weeks. He was seen near the Hornberger home three hours before the child disappeared when on her way to a nearby bakery, police were told.
Whether she reached the bakery
could not be learned.

City detectives today expressed the hope that a clearing up of the situation of the Hornberger child would furnish a clue to the mysterious disappearance under similar circumstances two years ago, of Emily Gump, within a few blocks of the Hornberger home.

Emily Gump, also nine years of age, disappeared after attending a church entertainment in the neighborhood.

IRISH STIRRED BY MYSTERY NOTE

Message Delivered to De Valera
By Bishop of Dromore.

SEEN AS MOVE AGAINST WAR

Republican Parliament Still Considering Peace Terms.

DUBLIN.—(By Associated Press)
—Members of the Irish republican parliament, gathered here to frame
the reply of that body to the British government's offer of dominion status for Ireland, divided their activities today between the secret sessions of the parliament and a meeting of the executive committee of the Sinn Fein. It was believed both meetings would concern themselves with the attitude taken by the Irish republicans toward the peace terms laid down by Prime Minister Lloyd George.

CLERGY URGES PEACE

Meetings of the Sinn Fein executive committee were placed under the ban long ago by the British government, and so far as known, the prescription was never lifted. Up until this morning, however, no information had been given the British authorities regarding the assembly.

Considerable speculation was caused here last night by the delivery of a message to Mr. De Valera by Monsignor Edward Mulhern, bishop of Dromore. It was asserted the message came from "highest authority." It was declared in some quarters that the Irish clergy was urging such action by the parliament as would preclude resumption of war fare between the republican forces and the British soldiery or constabulary.

EXPLANATIONS SOUGHT

Two sessions of the parliament
were held yesterday, and while details of them were withheld, it was understood the deputies asked Em-man De Valera, head of the republican movement and his colleagues
for explanations of various phases of the situation. Actual framing of the Irish answer that will be sent to London was apparently postponed.

Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, planned to meet his cabinet at Belfast today and it was believed probable that relations between Belfast and Dublin would be considered.

WIFE FIGHTS FOR MATE'S LIFE

Claims Alibi For Jersey Man Facing Death Chair.

TRENTON, N. J.—(By United Press)—The electric chair in state prison here was prepared today for the execution of George Brandon.

While the condemned man's wife went from one official to another seeking a reprieve, insisting that she had discovered an absolute alibi for her husband, that would clear him
of the murder charge, electricians threw the current into the chair, attendants tested the straps and Brandon's head was shaved where the deadly electrode is applied.

Mrs. Brandon went to the pen and demanded to see Charles Perchand, convict, and the man who accused Brandon of murdering Arthur L.
Rubber and Miss Edith Janney near Rabway, in 1918. She declared that if she could confront him with a priest as witness, he would be forced to retract his charges. But Perchand refused to see her.

Mrs. Brandon asserts her husband was working in a garage in New York at the time the murder was committed.

ACCUSED OF WIFE MURDER

Victim Warned of Danger Neighbor Declares.

SANTA ROSA, Calif.—(By United Press)—The Rev. John Spencer, charged with wife murder, is a "male vampire," Mrs. E. N. Palmer declared today.

Spencer, on being arrested after authorities had investigated the supposed drowning of his wife at Lake Port, asserted that Mrs. Palmer was responsible for his difficulties.

"I'm ready to confront Spencer
here in Santa Rosa, or go on the witness stand and tell what I know,
even if my testimony meant he would hang," said Mrs. Palmer.

Spencer, once a country physician
in Oklahoma, posed as a faith healer,
Mrs. Palmer said.

She declared he used to give treatments to women, taking his wife
with him on these occasions.

His wife she asserted, frequently became hysterical when Spencer was giving these treatments to his patients.

WORKED IN KITCHEN

Mrs. Palmer said it was the healer's practice to take his patient to the kitchen while his wife remained in another part of the house with members of the family.

Mrs. Palmer declared the preacher's wife had been warned not to accompany her husband on his trip to the lake country, where she died.

Mrs. Spencer, who was formerly Miss Emma Morris, of Dayton, Ohio,
was kept under the influence of drugs
of which her husband had knowledge,
Mrs. Palmer asserted.

MUTINY MENACES PASSENGERS

Battleship Called To Aid Of Threatened Steamer.

NEW YORK.—(By Associated Press)—The steamship Allianca arrived today from Cristobal with three mutinous firemen in irons and twenty-two marines transferred to the steamship at sea from the battleship Connecticut, on guard because of rebellious spirit exhibited by sailors.

Fearing for the safety of 124 passengers, many of whom were women and children, Captain James Stone
got into touch with the battleship
by wireless Friday and summoned aid.

The Allianca left Cristobal August 12. Captain Stone said that as the result of continual quarrels he summoned three firemen before him
and ordered them put in irons on charge of mutiny. As they were being taken to confinement they screamed:

"All hands, quit work."

There was no actual response to their suggestion but the rest of the firemen muttered constantly and made such threats that the engineers went armed and were afraid to sleep.

The cook could not rest in his quarters because of the noise
made by the unruly firemen and had to sleep on deck. When the marines arrived the trouble subsided.

for each team.

SATURATES HIS CLOTHING WITH KEROSENE, THEN APPLIES THE TORCH

NEW YORK.—Sylvester Crockett, a negro, attempted suicide yesterday in Toms prison by setting fire to his clothing which he had first saturated with kerosene. Before touching the match, he bathed his face and head in the oil and tied a handkerchief tightly about his throat. The act occurred in a room used to house prisoners about to be finger-printed.

The kerosene was left in the room
to remove blacking used in the process. Two other prisoners raised the alarm by shouting and beating on the door but the negro was so badly burned before the flames were extinguished that there was believed to be little chance of his recovery. He was to have been sent to Sing Sing prison to begin a five year term for beating a patrolman.

GIRL IS KILLED BY JILTED LOVER

Bedford Child, 13, Shot to Death
by Man, 38.

THEN TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Slayer and Suicide Boarded in Home of Victim.

BEDFORD, Ohio.—(By Associated Press)—Minnie Lakatos, 13, was shot thru the heart and instantly killed by Mike Pinter, 38, today,
after which Pinter shot and killed himself. The tragedy is said to have resulted from the refusal of the girl
to marry Pinter because of her age.
Pinter was a boarder at the Lakatos
home.

The girl's mother died a year ago
and since then she had been housekeeper for her father. Several months ago Pinter came to board with the Lakatos. Six weeks ago Pinter asked Lakatos for the hand of the girl in marriage. The father refused because of the girl's age.
Minnie too objected. Pinter continued to press his attentions upon the girl, saying if he could not have her,
no one would.

This morning Pinter again asked the girl to marry him and when she refused fired a bullet into her heart
and then killed himself.

WHISKEY IN AUTO; FINE IS $1,000

Louis Hohl Refuses to Tell Where He Obtained Liquor.

Louis Hohl, 35, 134 1-2 S. Main-st, was arrested shortly before noon, Tuesday, and a charge of possessing intoxicating liquors placed against him by Deputy Sheriff Clarence J.
Fraunfelter and County Detective
Roy Bowersock.

Fraunfelter and Bowersock discovered an automobile in which there was corn whiskey, according to the
"w. officials. When they located the owner of the car, it was found to be Hohl, the officers said.

He was arraigned shortly after noon in Justice Ernest M. Botkin's court and pleaded guilty to the charge.
Hohl said the whiskey belonged to him and that he kept it for his personal use. He refused to tell where he secured it or who made the whisky. He denied that he manufactured
it.

"You can put me in jail, but I will not tell where I got it," Hohl told the justice. He was fined $1,000 and costs, with orders to Sheriff Baxter from the court to secure the fine or imprison Hohl in the county jail.

Officers Fraunfelter and Bowersock declared the liquor is colored corn whiskey. "Are you sure it was corn whiskey?" Hohl asked them, when they made their report to Justice Botkin.

PLANS MADE TO FURNISH CHILDREN OF CITY POOR WITH SCHOOL APPAREL

Inability of parents in the city to provide their children with clothing to attend school, will not be the means of depriving any of the youngsters of the opportunity to procure an education.

Clothing for dozens of poor kiddies is to be made up in the next three weeks by various organizations in Lima. Churches, lodges and social organizations will do their bit. Mrs. Irene Mills Jackson, social service head, stated Tuesday that no child will be allowed to miss school for want of clothing.

Garments will be cut out and will be sewed by women of various societies. The regular relief organizations will endeavor to provide the kiddies with shoes and stockings.

More than 14 dozen pairs of hose have been bought and will be distributed as this season. Large quantities of flannel have been purchased by the bolt by the social service bureau and the cloth will be transformed into garments. Lighter material for making dresses has also been purchased.

Providing the boys and girls with shoes is the most difficult problem faced by the bureau.

TAKES OWN LIFE

Ohioan, Sought for Wife Murder, Shoots Himself.

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press)

Sylvester Lukarnak, 25, sought for the murder last Sunday night of his wife, Anna, and the probable fatal shooting of John Langle, a roomer in the Lukarnak home, shot and killed himself in a farm house at Hiram, near here, early today when cornered by a police detail from Cleveland.

The suicide followed a half hour battle between Lukarnak and the police. Turning the fire, the officer finally drove Lukarnak into a room in the rear of the house. Before they could break down the door they heard a shot. On entering they found the man had sent his last bullet into his brain.

Mr. Randolph's death occurred as a result of a hemorrhage, an attack with he was reading a newspaper in the hotel apartment occupied here by himself and his wife. He was born in Lunenburg-co, Virginia.

GRAMM-BERNSTEIN GETS OVERSEAS TRUCK ORDER

Order for what is characterized by officials as a substantial shipment of trucks, was received Tuesday by the Gramm-Bernstein company from English agents. At the same time it was announced that 15 light ton and a-half machines were to go to Japanese agents, with other shipments to follow.

"We have orders for a number of machines," E. A. Gramm, manager, stated Tuesday noon. "It is the start of a series of shipments which will extend thru the fall and winter. The orders came thru regularly accredited agents of the company in the British Isles."

The Lima concern has more than 1,000 trucks in England and was shipping 50 a month up to a year ago, when the falling rate of exchange forced English dealers to cancel orders. The first order will exceed 30 machines, it was stated.

It is anticipated that recent rises in the rate of exchange will prove productive of orders.

The trucks going to England, Gramm stated, are the light one-and-a-half-ton vehicles. The heavy-ton monsters popular in this country do not seem to be so popular abroad.

UNCLE SAM WON'T PERMIT WAR

Tells Panama To Keep Hands Off Costa Rica.

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press)

The American state department in a note forwarded to Panama yesterday stated emphatically that the United States would not permit any hostilities growing out of the occupation of the Coto region by Costa Rica.

The American note was in response to a communication from the Panama government, indicating that if Costa Rica should attempt to occupy the disputed territory, force would be used in resisting unless the United States made it clear that the American government would prevent it.

PANAMA TO REPLY

PANAMA — (By Associated Press) — Panama's reply to the latest note from Secretary Hughes, in which Panama was told that in disputed territory along the Costa Rican frontier would be placed under the jurisdiction of Costa Rica, has been considered by the Panama cabinet and possibly will be delivered on Wednesday.

Altho it is generally reported that armed forces have already been ordered to advance on Coto, in the disputed area, with a view to opposing possible Costa Rican occupation, most recent official declarations here indicate that troops have been dispatched only to David, a town some distance from the boundary to hold themselves in readiness to march to Coto whenever orders are received.

The Panama government, it is understood, will await further advice from Washington to taking any decided steps. General preparations to meet emergency calls for men have been made. The chief of the fire department has been instructed to hold himself ready to relieve all police force, should their removal to the frontier become necessary.

SENATE VOTES ON SHIP BILL TODAY

Both Houses Preparing for Adjournment Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press)

The senate and house resumed today their consideration of business under high pressure in the expectation of declaring a 30 days' recess late tomorrow.

Both were in session last night, the house until it had passed the administration railroad funding bill and the senate until 11:15 when it had reached a point where it was ready to take a final vote upon reconvening today on the shipping board deficiency bill carrying $48,500,000.

The senate debate last night was devoted in part to a vigorous discussion of President Harding's appearance before it last month to oppose passage at that time of the soldiers' bonus bill. The discussion was started by Senator LaFollette, Republican, Wisconsin, who charged the president with executive interference with the legislative branch of the government, and was participated in by a dozen others, the president being both attacked and defended for his course.

The senate in addition to taking final action on the shipping board bill today was expected to vote upon an appropriation of $200,000 for expenses of the disarmament conference and on a proposal to instruct the American delegates to the conference to demand open sessions.

The house today was to take up the conference report on the anti-beer bill with the expectation of leaders that it would be adopted, altho there was no indication of what course the senate would subsequently take in the matter in view of its previous insistence on the Stanley amendment relating to search and seizure under the Volstead act. When this report is disposed of the house is to take up the conference on the Capper-Phetcher bill regulating trading in grain futures.

STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS CONFLICTING ON DOVES

While the laws of Ohio protect wild doves at all times, there is a federal statute that permits shooting of these birds from September 1 to December 15, with a bag limit of 25 a day, according to information received by game wardens from the state fish and game commission.

The state game heads neglect to state whether the federal law takes precedence over the state law, or whether it will be unsafe for sportsmen to kill doves, in view of the Ohio statute.

AUTO BUSINESS IS AGAIN BOOMING

John C. Craig Talks On Revival Of Industry.

CAR MANUFACTURE DOUBLED

Given As Index to General Upturn of Trade.

(By HAROLD D. JACOBS)
NEW YORK—(United Press)—The automobile industry, following a brief period of depression, is booming again.

Continued increase in the demand for motor transportation is accepted as an "index to the return of industry generally to sound conditions," John C. Long, secretary of the educational department of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, told the United Press today.

Long said in the second quarter of this year, more than double the number of passenger cars and a third more motor trucks were manufactured than in the first quarter.

"The continued increase in the demand for motor transportation along with the increase in the business of the rail lines, is an index of the return of industry generally to sound conditions, in the opinion of automobile manufacturers," he said.

Reports from automobile manufacturers to National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, show that in the second quarter of 1921, the volume of business equalled 87 per cent of the same period in 1920.

One of the makers is operating at 135 per cent of the 1920 basis, while the average of the others companies is 57 per cent.

Thousands Employed
"Business is the second quarter showed a distinct gain over the first quarter, as the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce members made more than double the number of passenger cars in that period and a third more trucks."

Long emphasized that "this return of activity in the third largest industry is expected to stimulate other lines of business. This, he said, is to be felt strongly in the third quarter."

"The automobile industry itself employs more than 300,000 men in its factories, with as many more in accessory plants," he pointed out.

"The 35,000 dealers in the country employ 100,000 salesmen."

"There are 9,200,000 cars in use. Replacement business alone amounts to hundreds of thousands a year."

DEAS CLASH ON RACE SUICIDE

Decrease Shown Among College
Graduates, Ricker Says.

CLAIM IS DISPUTED

Figures Given On Both Sides of the Question.

BOSTON—(By Associated Press) The race suicide increasing among college graduates? Maurice Ricker of the United States Public Health Service says that it is, and quotes statistics to prove it. Some college presidents, however, doubt the conclusion drawn by the health service and think his figures give a wrong impression. Others say that a lack of statistics of their own, they are not prepared to discuss the subject. They admit that Mr. Ricker's figures are startling and that they present a disquieting view of the future.

Addressing the recent convention of the National Educational Association in Des Moines, Ia., Mr. Ricker was quoted as follows: "Investigation by the federal public health service over a period of years indicates that the progeny of one thousand graduates from such institutions as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, and Smith will not exceed thirty in 100 years from now." He proceeded to compare the results of a similar canvass among illiterate foreigners and said it indicated that in a like period the original thousand would be multiplied at least a hundred times.

Frederick L. Allen, secretary of the Harvard University Corporation, produced some figures of his own from the Harvard records. He said: "Mr. Ricker's assertion would seem at first reading to give the impression that college students have on the average less than one child apiece. This is not so among Harvard graduates at any rate. Among the classes of 1881-90 at Harvard, the last ten classes whose statistics are available and may be considered fairly complete, the average number of men per class was 248, of whom 183 married and had 372 children, an average of 2.05 children per married graduate, or 1.55 children per capita for the whole class. The Yale figures for the same period are similar. The birthrate among Harvard graduates declined during the past half century. The decline however was less sharp in the class between 1870 and 1890 than it had been previously; and a situation which is disquieting at best, seems thus to be showing a gradual tendency to right itself."

No figures on the subject are available from Wellesley College, but President Ellen S. Pendleton gives it as her impression that as far as the alumnae of Wellesley are concerned, the number of marriages and the number of children per marriage have increased rather than decreased as the years have gone by. "Some twenty or more years ago," said Miss Pendleton, "The Association of Collegiate Alumnae gathered quite elaborate statistics computing the health, number of marriages and number of children per marriage of college women with similar statistics of their sisters who did not go to college or their cousins nearest the age. These statistics showed that there was very slight difference between the two classes, but such difference as there was, was in favor of the college bred women, and as I have said while we have no recent figures, my impression is that there are more marriages and more children per marriage in these later years."

"No one denies that college women marry later in life than non-college women and consequently any statistics that are made up on the basis of women not more than five years out of college would give an entirely wrong impression. I suspect that the same thing would be true of college men."

An article in the Smith Alumnae Quarterly and based on the Quinquennial Catalogue of 1915 is offered as the latest available information regarding the graduates of Smith College and their children. This gave the average number of children for each of the total number of alumnae (5962, with the class of 1915 omitted) as .56. The average of children for each marriage in the classes numbered '79 to '85 was 2.15. This decreased with later classes until the average for each marriage from 1879 to 1915 was only 1.24. The compiler, Florence Homer Snow, of the class of 1904, suggests that if the figures seem small, arguments for the defense include the facts that the youngest classes are largest, and that many college women marry late so that the figures regarding them are not available until they have been many years out of college.

SWINDLERS GET $10,000 THRU OLD ENVELOPE TRICK

NEW YORK—Police were searching today among the 1,355 Katzes and 990 Kaplans listed in the city for two men who swindled four residents of Newark, N. J. out of $10,000 by the ancient "switched envelope" trick.

The four capitalists were introduced to Messrs. "Katz" and "Kaplan" first names not given, by a friend who said they could supply the Newarkers with certificates representing whiskey in bonded warehouses.

To prove their good faith, the financiers produced $10,000 which they permitted the dexterous Manhattanites to seal in envelopes pending delivery of the certificates. When they grew tired of waiting, they opened the envelopes and found them filled with paper.

To Car-Owners Everywhere - About the Tire Merchant who is Happy in his Business

EVEN today some motorists are still looking for the ideal tire dealer.

Alert, courteous, carrying a complete stock of good tires. As eager to serve you with a valve cap or a tube, as with a new spare.

His enthusiasm a reflection of his clean business and his happy relations with his customers.

With midseason here—the sales of U. S. Royal Cords all over the country during April, May, June and July, 1921, exceed the same four months of last year by 88 per cent.

You might expect merchants who are seeing such remarkable sales increases to be preoccupied with figures to the exclusion of all else.

Yet you will not be surprised to hear them speak of the pleasure of handling Royal Cord Tires.

The cleanliness of the transaction. The fine kind of people attracted to their stores. The freedom from worry. Satisfied, permanent customers. Steady demand as against "spotty" sales.

There is so much glib talk these days of "merchandising" in the abstract, that perhaps some have overlooked the need of a man being happy as well as prosperous.

What keeps business more satisfying than the pleasure of dealing in quality? Of having the authority of quality? Of creating self-respect both in buyer and seller?

As U. S. Royal Cords are doing today.

TRADE STILL FALLING OFF

DURING the month of July the lowest figures of the year were reached by the foreign commerce of the United States, when imports on merchandise account aggregated $178,000,000 and exports and re-exports $322,000,000.

These totals compare with imports of $186,000,000 in June of the current year and $537,000,000 in July a year ago and with exports and re-exports of $337,000,000 in June, 1921, and $651,000,000 in July, 1920.

For the seven months ending with July, imports of merchandise amounted to $1,498,000,000 and exports and re-exports to $2,856,000,000 and the latter $2,041,000,000 below the corresponding 1920 totals.

Politicians potter around in Washington, fuming and fussing over things of much less importance than action that will result in increasing our foreign trade. There is little doubt but that the above figures are correct. They have been compiled by Herbert Hoover, whose business it is to know about such things.

Explanations as to why this state of affairs exists do not help in the least to correct it. There are too many special interests seeking to be served at government expense, while larger and more important things are sidetracked or are forgotten.

Many cure-alls have been offered for the correction of the existing conditions, but thus far they have proven valueless and matters are steadily growing worse.

In connection with the situation the transfer of gold to this country in settlement of trade balances continues. The excess in July was at the rate of $2,000,000 a day, seven days in the week. Gold piles up in the United States treasury and stocks abroad are steadily reduced.

BACK TO SCHOOL SOON

FOR the average American kiddie the near approach of returning school days no longer holds "terrors." Time was when boys were called upon to give up the pleasures of vacation for "reading, writing and arithmetic, taught to the tune of a hickory stick," there was no joy in the prospect.

However, in these days, when the necessity of at least a fundamental education is recognized by even the children themselves, there is little hesitancy on the part of any of them to return to their studies. In fact, for the most part, they welcome the opportunity.

This is an encouraging sign of the times. Educational facilities have been made so attractive that few hesitate to embrace the opportunities afforded. Besides, when it is recognized that only those who are equipped for the battles of life, succeed, there is a further incentive for everyone who has the opportunity, to embrace it.

With compulsory education laws, there is no longer need of anyone growing up in ignorance. The state looks after its future men and women requiring that they meet a certain standard in education. Those who fail are wilfully negligent and shiftless, if physically and mentally able to meet the state's requirements.

Therefore, when the Lima schools open on September 6 for the fall and winter term, thousands of youth will take up their studies where they left off last spring. The play season is nearly over. Soon comes work again.

A LITTLE SLICE O' LIFE

Every once in a while I read in the papers that everything is coming down in price very rapidly. One week they will be down thirty percent, and the next perhaps twenty per cent. And I have never seen where they have been down forty per cent. The statisticians always give the percentage of reduction. It seems to be quite a fad with these figure shanks to tell the exact percentage.

OLD SCISSORS SAYS:

The only redeeming feature about an "auto-mobile graveyard" is that tombstones are not necessary or desirable.

And they sometimes get it in fractions, to be exact. But I am sorry to say that the gentlemen with whom I do business don't seem to read the newspapers. Or, if they do, they don't seem to believe what the statisticians say. If prices have gone down forty per cent. Or even ten per cent., these birds haven't heard about it as yet.

WAR NOT WANTED

THAT the people of Germany have been fed up with war and its dreadful results is apparent in more ways than one. On the occasion of the seventh anniversary of the beginning of the world war, when the War Lord of Europe ran amuck, citizens of Germany celebrated by assembling in public places to give expression to the most lively sentiments against further wars.

Now that Germany is paying the bill for having listened to the seductive wooing of the war spirit, there is no desire on their part for a second experience of the sort they are now coming thru. The Germans are doing now what they should have done in 1914, when they permitted the kaiser to start a holocaust. They are developing peace-time pursuits.

They are bending their every energy toward a come-back. They are reestablishing themselves and striving to pay the obligations that have come to them as the result of having lost the war. There is every reason to feel that Germany will not soon again develop the spirit of war.

FORGETTING THE WAR

AMERICAN Legion publications, instead of preaching the doctrine of remembrance of the enemy in the world war and holding hatred toward him, are urging that he be forgiven and that attention be directed to the relief of those who are suffering as a result of the war.

Legion papers recognize and comment freely upon the fact that for the profiteer the war was a mighty good thing. But what about the boys who were wounded and who have not recovered? What about the dependents of those who died?

Soldiers have reason aplenty to feel that those who cannot or will not forget the spirit of profiteering are worse enemies to the service men than those they faced in the battle line in France.

It is a splendid doctrine the service men is endeavoring to teach. Americans are too big and too broad to hold hatred against a foe in war long after hostilities have ceased. But the profiteer who persists, deserves no consideration.

JUST A MOMENT

ALL power has it that "when a star is falling, everyone goeth to it with an axe." And it might be added that the same thing applies to man as well.

If Allen-co farmers can save $75,000 a year by using the axe on "flapper" hens, the operation is justifiable.

A JOHN makes this observation: "It's pretty safe to bet that every mother's son named John who attended the picnic at Faurel park here recently is convinced that he was given that name because his parents couldn't think of any other at the time."

J. C. JOLLY is a newspaperman at Warren, detailed to report deaths, funerals and fatal accidents. There's nothing in a name.

SINCE America is to have a hall of fame for women, men who believe there are no famous women will have to go back and sit down.

FOLKS shouldn't take all of the "walking on a wagger" contingent too seriously. Most of 'em are merely bumping auto rides for the sheer pleasure of taking in the roadside scenery.

THOSE who honestly try to be optimists, but who are pessimistic about general conditions, might properly be termed peptomists.

WOMEN who manage their husbands the most successfully, probably make a thorn study of the animals first.

MISS LIMA: "Perhaps Senators Knox and Lodge are not feeling well. They are not hostile to the medicinal use of beer."

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

By PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

ARLINE WINS HER MOMENT

The two of them wandered out into the white night and Arline's laugh was the low one of a woman who knows that she is loved. She let Ned know in every way that she was alive to his sudden need for her, that there was nothing that she loved better than to be the object of his admiration.

Tingling with new found happiness, she flew away from him, hovered like some gauzy bird of the night just a few feet in front of him to catch him if he could. The night, the moon, the moon were all in Ned's senses as with a bound he started after the girl. After all he was a young man and as such claimed a young man's privileges. His own wife did not want him particularly. Well, other women did.

Arline fluttered down the road, laughing as she went and waiting to him outlongly every now and then. She disappeared in a small clump of trees, was lost to sight, then Ned came upon her suddenly with a last successful sprint. He had her in his arms, was holding her roughly to him as he pushed back her hair and kissed those soft willing lips of hers and once or twice she opened her eyes long enough to press to the man her complete delight. She was a witch-woman.

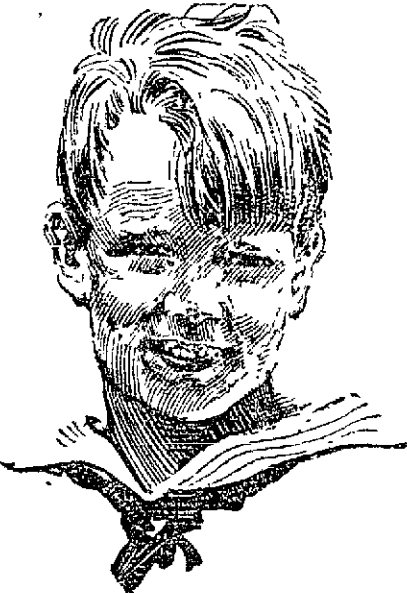

Lovely, this Arline. And Ned seemed intoxicated by the closeness of her. "Never stop holding me, Ned," she whispered to him as he pulled her down beside him on the ground. "Never stop loving me."

Again her lips were pressed to him. And again she clung to him. Gladly. "Ned, why did we ever break up, I want you as much this minute as I did back in Kansas City, two years ago. I want you much more, oh, much more, my dear." And here she buried her face in his coat sleeve.

"Arline, little girl, look up, don't cry. I guess we've made a mess of things all round, you and I. But it's too late now, and I did think that I was loved by Cherry," he finished with a sigh.

"No one could ever love you as I have done and do. No one. That wife of yours is living for herself only. She'll never give you what I would gladly have given you every minute of the night and day. Look into my eyes, Ned, and see what I mean, look."

girl loved him better than life, wanted him more than her father's wealth, or the most wonderful career in the world, trust him! Ned Randall, an ordinary man. Well, Cherry didn't, that was sure. The moon winked down at them blandly as they sat forgetting time and space. (To be continued)

ME PLENTIFUL THIS YEAR

Sportsmen Will be in Clover, Baxter Says.

INCREASE IS REPORTED

Pre Season Opens Sept. 15 and Ends Oct. 20.

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press)—Hunting is going to be in Ohio this year than it has long time. Game is more plentiful now than at any time in the ten years.

This is the prediction made today by C. Baxter, chief of the division of fish and game.

Reports reaching the division all parts of the state indicate sportsmen will be in clover the hunting seasons open, he declared. The increase in game protectors having been active in preventing unlawful hunting. All territories are patrolled with motorcycles.

REAL SEASON

A squirrel season opens September 15 and ends October 20, both inclusive. Squirrels are plentiful in the wooded section of southern and eastern Ohio. Squirrels only may be taken at lime, and it is unlawful to sell or purchase a squirrel. The penalty violation of the squirrel section of state hunting law is a fine of $25 to $200, with each squirrel a separate offense.

A leniency will be shown those hunt before the season opens, warning is given now," said R.

A season on wild ducks, geese, and gallinule opens September under both state and federal and ends December 31, both inclusive. Twenty-five ducks, or gallinule may be taken in any, and eight geese. Waterfowl be taken any day in the week Sunday, from a half hour before sunrise, until sunset.

UTLIES FIXED

A penalty for violating the wild fowl section of the state law fine of $25 to $200, and the by under the state law, which inter-national treaty, is a fine of not more than $500, or six months in the federal prison, or both.

The increase in the state of wild ducks, geese and other waterfowl has been enormous, according to Baxter. State and federal game protectors will work in close co-operation to apprehend hunters violating any provisions of the laws affecting waterfowl, Baxter declared.

Game refuges that have been established at many of the inland lakes in Ohio by the division of fish and game have an abundance of natural feed, and this will attract the ducks and geese, thus making better hunting, Baxter pointed out. These refuges or rest grounds keep the ducks in Ohio and give them a retreat from the gunners. When shooting is heavy, instead of leaving the lakes entirely, they will retire to the refuges, where they are not disturbed, and in this way, good shooting is continued throughout the season.

Rabbits are plentiful, Baxter said. Ringneck pheasants also have shown a big increase. The state distributed 60,000 pheasant's eggs to sportsmen and farmers, to be hatched, and the young ones liberated this year, and 200 live pheasants from the game farm at Wellington have been placed in each county.

THREE-FAMILY REUNION HELD AT FAUROT PARK

The annual reunion of the Featheringill, Bogart and Fruchey families was held Tuesday at Faurot park, Lima, attended by more than 300 members.

The descendants com from pioneer residents of Pleasant-ti, Putnam-co, and the relationship extends into Allen and adjoining counties. Pioneers of the three families laid out Columbus Grove. Mrs. Fay Doty, Columbus Grove, is secretary.

MANSFIELD CHOSEN AS CHILD EXPERIMENT STATION

WASHINGTON — Selection of the town of Mansfield, and the county of Richland, Ohio, as the location of its five year experiment in the development of children was announced today by the National Child Health Council. The Ohio communities were picked from 80 which sought the distinction as most nearly complying with the qualifications of a typical American community.

The demonstration, which will be directed by Dr. Walter H. Brown, formerly health officer of Bridgeport, Conn., will be conducted, the council announced today, to show what can be done thru concerted action to increase the health and strength of the rising generation.

LIMA MAN SOUGHT BY POLICE

Charles Oliver Charged With Getting Away With $700.

DELPHOS — (Special)—Charles Oliver of this city is being sought by police, on charges fled against him by his wife, that he secured from her about $700 and then departed, deserting her.

Mrs. Oliver stated that she was well ware when she married Oliver in Lima about two months ago and came to Delphos to make their home, that Oliver was an Italian, but she thought him to be an honorable and upright man.

She charges that he married her for the purpose of securing possession of the money left to her by her first husband. Oliver, according to his wife who claims to have been deserted, was given the money to engage in the fruit business, but instead, he left the city and is now thought to be in Muncie, Mishawaka or Elkhart, Indiana.

A large Chevrolet touring car, the property of F. C. Earnhart of Urbana, father of C. V. Earnhart, manager for the Northwestern Ohio Light company here, dashed into the ditch at the west end of the paved stretch of the Allentown-rd, west of Lima, Sunday and was somewhat damaged, but the occupants escaped injury.

Earnhart and his family were enroute to this city and the accident occurred when the Chevrolet was passing another car.

When an auto driven by Sylvester Wechart of this city collided with a car owned by A. Leist, of Ohio City, on the road at Middlepoint, the Leist car was badly damaged. Suit against Wechart was brought by Leist in the court of a justice of the peace at Middlepoint and he was required to put up $23.30 for damages, it is stated.

Charles (Roxie) Elder, of Scott's Crossing, was fined $12.50 in mayor's court here Monday, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

WASHINGTON — William J. Burns, New York, was sworn in as director of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, succeeding William J. Flynn.

WANTED - A HUSBAND

By SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

SYNOPSIS
In desperation by the cond her flatmates, Maud Raines en Barret—who have become
to Holcomb Lee and Paul respectively—lumpy, frumpy
pours out to her wonderful friend, Gloria Greene, her
to be pretty—“pretty enough to be a queen,” she says. “Exhibit
B,” she says, “is a portrait of me, as I am, done by a character of Darcy at eleven years ago. Darcy is a girl in fancy sitting down while at Darcy’s
of her looks, when the doorbell

got eyes that’d be dangerous if the white’s weren’t yellow. If you’d try weaving your heart in ‘em instead of your liver, they’d do very well.
Fifth, the lines of the face—see “Life,” Sixth, “you look as if you were built to be light and strong.”
“I rather like being a dummy,” purred Darcy.
“Wait. Stand up.”
Darcy obeyed.
“Like a camel,” dispassionately commented the actress. “Look in the glass now,” she ordered.
Darcy looked.
“How’d you like it?” demanded
her instructor.
“N—not as well.”
“I should think likely. You lop.”
“I—I can’t help it.”
“Nonsense! You slump.”
Darcy’s lips slacked petulantly
down at the corners. Like a flash
Gloria leveled two fingers.
“You peeve,” she accused. “Your chin is flabby. Your mouth is fishy.
Your eyes are bleary. Your skin is muddy. You walk like a duck, and you stand like a bag.”
“I suppose the Lord gave me my face,” Darcy defended herself sulkily.
“Don’t libel your Maker. The Lord gave you a face. See exhibit
B. Why’ve you done to your face is a crime Darcy Cole! Not to mention what you’ve done to your
added as the doorbell rang “if that were the police now come to hale you away to judgment. Sit still!”
she commanded as Darcy looked for a way to escape.
The door opened to a visitor who was presented to the shrinking Miss Darcy by the smiling Miss Gloria Greene. Mr.
Harmon displayed himself as a stocky man with very cheerful
bright brown eyes deferential manners and a curious effect of carrying his strudy frame as if it weighed a ton. He looked as fit in his way as did Gloria in hers.
“I’ve promised Mr. Harmon,” Gloria explained, turning to her, “to help him choose an anniversary gift for his sister. Amuse yourself until I come back.”
Right and vitality died out of the atmosphere for Darcy, with Gloria’s exit. Divesting herself of the trappings of glory and hope and promise, she resumed her workaday garb. The long mirror, endowed with a sardonic personality, watched her with silent but pungent commentary. She walked before it and surveyed herself. The effect was worse, by contrast, than she could have imagined.

“Oh, you frump!” she whispered
at her. “You frazzled botch of a frump!”
“Was a surrender to grim facts.”
Suddenly she felt extremely languid.
The big couch in the peaceful, curtained alcove lured her. She plunged into it higgledy-piggledy
and curled up, an unsightly ex-cessiveness upon its suave surface.
Within two minutes she was winging her airy way thru that realm of sleep wherein beauty is forever in the eye of the self-beholder.

Dream music crept into her dreams. Clearer and richer it grew until it filled the dreams so full that they burst wide open. The music poured out thru the cleft
to a realization of the fact that somebody beyond the draperies
which secreted her was piping like Pan’s very self, to an accompaniment of strange, lulling, minor melodies. She peeped out.
A tall, slender young man sat at the piano, humming in a melodious voice a song of which he had apparently forgotten the words. One passage seemed to puzzle him, and he repeated the melody several times,
essaying various harmonies to go
with it, shook his head discontentedly, and dashed away into Gilbert and Sullivan.

In the midst of this the door opened. Gloria stood on the threshold. A look of pleasure flashed over her face as she saw the player.
A dozen light, soft-footed steps carried her to him. She clasped her hands over his eyes, let them slip to his shoulders, planted a swift, little kiss on the top of his head, and stepped back.
“Jack!” She cried.
The man swung around, leaped
to his feet, caught her by both hands, and exclaimed:

“Well Gloria! It’s a treat to see you.”
“I’d begun to think you were never coming back. Where do you hail from?”
“Oh, all over the map. But no place as good as this.”
He smiled down at her, still holding her hands. To a keen, thin, sensitive face, with a mobile mouth
and quiet eyes, the smile set the final impression of charm. Darcy decided that he was the one man
she had ever seen worthy of Gloria Greene. And she was glad they had found each other.
“But where’s Darcy?” asked the hostess, looking about.
“Who?” asked her visitor.
“A little acquaintance whom I left here when I went out.”
The concealed girl sat up. “Here
I am,” she announced shyly. “I fell asleep.”
“Oh, then I’m afraid I waked you up with my silly hammering,” said
the man.
“N-no. It doesn’t matter. I—I mean, I liked it,” stammered the girl.

“Then go and play it again.”
Jack,” commanded Miss Greene.
“While I get off my things. And then go away. You can come back for dinner. Miss Cole and I have important things to talk over.” “Oh, no! Please! I can come some other time,” protested Darcy in a flutter of embarrassment. “I don’t want to drive Mr.—Mr.—him away.”
“Mr. Jacob Remsen has all the time in the world,” said Gloria climily. “Time is the least of his troubles. He kills it at sight.” “Don’t mind her, Miss Corey,”
put in Remsen.
Darcy’s uneasiness and gaucherie
presently dissipated before the cordial and winning simplicity of Gloria’s man. And she found herself volunteering a harmonic solution of the difficult change where he had blundered over the transition, and humming the melody
while she played her version. He accepted it with enthusiasm.
“Sing it,” he urged. “I like your voice—what little you let us hear
of it.”
Instantly Darcy stiffened up inside and stammered a refusal.
Remsen took it with matter-of-fact good humor.

“I’m sure you do sing, tho,” he called back as his hostess ritually evicted him. “I’m going to send you that song.”
But he didn’t look at her, she noticed as he said it. Why should he, indeed, when Gloria was in the room?
“There it is,” she complained,
waving an awkward arm toward the door thru which Mr. Jacob Rem-sen had vanished. “That’s what I’ve been trying to tell you about.”
The owner of the despised first name winced. “I never thought of that,” she murmured.
“Jack?” puzzled her hostess.
“Why, what’s wrong with Jack?”
“Oh, nothing,” replied the girl
wearily. “But—did you notice
what he did when he left?”
“Offered to send you some music.
I thought it was quite polite. Jack’s always courteous.” “Oh, courteous! He didn’t even look at me.”
“Well, why—?”
“That’s it! Why? Why should any man look at me? They don’t.
People don’t really know I’m alive.”
“Now list to the voice of wisdom,” returned the other. “You complain that people don’t know you’re alive. Why should they?
You don’t give out anything—
warmth, color, personality.”
“I haven’t anything to give,”
murmured the accused.

“Why? Because you’ve wasted
it. One thing only you’ve kept up,
and that ought to be an asset.
You’ve got a voice. Do you ever let it out for other people?”
“I don’t like to sing before people.”
“There you are! Always thinking of your little self. You give nothing to the world, yet you think yourself ill used because—?”
“What does the world give me?”
broke in the aggrieved Darcy.
“Nothing for nothing. What would you expect? Do you think it’s going to smile at you when you scowl at it, and gaze on you ador-
ingly and say, ‘Much obliged to you for being alive? It isn’t that kind of a world,’ Miss Amanda Darcy Cole.” “Thinking is going to be part of your education from now on. You can’t begin too soon.”
“I’m ready,” said the girl meekly.
“Do you want me to begin with my voice? Shall I take singing lessons?”

“You’ll begin by taking living lessons. Do you know what that means?”
“I’m not sure I do. It sounds awfully hard,” faltered the other.
“It is. Go home and think it over. Come back here tomorrow at this time and get your orders.” “Yesum,” said Darcy.
In the seclusion of the hallway Darcy drew out Exhibit A and sought inspiration from the charming face, which Holcomb Lee had surrounded with admiring suitors
in the illustration.
“If it can be done,” said Darcy to the picture with the solemnity of a rite, “I’ll do it.”
At its best, the old Remsen house on West Twelfth street wore its ancestral respectability cloaked with gloom. Entering, young Mr. Rensen felt a chill descend upon his blithe spirit. A basso profundo clock within struck a hollow 5.
“Hark from the tomb!” observed
young Mr. Remsen. “I think I’ll move to the club.”

Slow footsteps, sounding from below, dissipated that intention.
“No, I can’t do that. I’ve got to stay here and be looked after by old Connor, or forever wound his feelings. That’s the worst of family responsibilities.”
The old servant puffed into sight
half carrying, half dragging a huge clothes basket.
“What’s that?” demanded Jacob.
“Your mail, sir.”
“Is that all?” asked the other.
“No, sir. There’s another half basket downstairs.”
“Good Lord! What’ll I do with it?”
“If I may suggest, sir, it ought to be read.”
“There’s a special delivery quite at the top, sir, marked ‘Immediate.’
Don’t you think that perhaps—?”
“Oh, all right, all right! I may as well begin.”
He opened it and glanced at the heading.
“Connor,” said he, “this is from
Mr. Bentley.”

LOUISVILLE COLONELS HAVE EDGE ON OTHER TEAMS IN AMERICAN ASSOCIATION RACE

With the season still a month to go, the pennant isn't in, by any means in the American Association. But the race has narrowed down to three teams with the Louisville Colonels as odds on favorites.

The Minneapolis Millers and the Kansas City Blues are the other two given a chance for the hunting by the wise ones.

The Millers are only two and a half games behind the Colonels and have been going better of late than at any time this season. But the Colonels have also been playing heads up baseball despite accidents and failure of Tommy Long, star pitcher, to come thru.

It looked as tho the Colo- nels' chances had gone two weeks ago, when Bruno Bet- zel, veteran second baseman broke his ankle. But the Colonels negotiated a deal for Buck Herzog, veteran star of the majors, purchasing him from the last place Columbus Senators and he fitted into the Louisville machine. Louisville has one big ad- vantage over the Millers and Blues. They'll finish the sea- son at home, playing Indian- apolis, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Kansas City in the order named, while the Millers and Blues are hitting the bumps on the road.

Kansas City, six games be- hind Louisville, furnishes a minor league parallel to the New York Yankees. The Blues have the most power in the A. A. but they lack the headwork and defensive abil- ity to make the grade.

They lead the league in batting and have scored 100 more runs than any other club. They also have the league's leading pitcher in

Gus Bono and the A. A.'s "Babe Ruth" in Bunny Brief, who has clouted 29 home runs.

The Milwaukee Brewers are hanging to fourth place. St. Paul, Toledo and Indian- apolis are fighting it out for the leading position in the second division. Columbus seems hopelessly destined for last place.

Final Net All Stars Drop Games Are Under Way

BOSTON, Mass.—The Longwood Cricket Club again had to di- vide tournament tennis play between its courts at Chestnut Hill and Longwood, with seven national title competitions to clear up within the week and an invitation singles tour- nament for women under way.

On the grass at Chestnut Hill this afternoon the second and third round of the national men's doubles title play and the first round of the national women's doubles cham- pionship began. In the former tournament, the Davis cup team combination of Williams and Wash- burne were paired against R. N. Dana and C. K. Shaw. The team of Tilden and Richards, revived after a two year lapse, met H. C. Johnson and G. P. Gardner, Jr. and the Kinsey brothers were opposed by J. B. Gil- bert and A. Yencken, a British com- bination.

The mixed doubles draw F. J. Tilden and Mrs. Nellie Blyndell Mal- lard matched with Miss Edith Sig- nore and N. W. Niles, of this city; Mrs. May Sutton Bundy and Robert Kinsey, of California, meeting Mrs. L. G. Morris and J. E. Mahan, of New York; and Miss Mary K. Browne and W. M. Johnston, of California, opposed by Miss K. Gardner and H. Guild, a local team.

At Longwood the women played this forenoon in the invitation tour- nament begun yesterday.

Women Golfers Start Their Title Matches

WESTMORELAND COUNTRY CLUB, EVANSTON, Ill.—Play in the first match round of the women's Western Golf Association's nineteenth annual championship tournament started today over a slow course at the Westmoreland club.

Mrs. Melvin Jones of Chicago who won the gold medal for the low qualifying score today and Miss Florence Halloran of Salt Lake City. Other pairings include Miss Jeanette Kinney, of Cleveland, vs. Miss Carrie Kaufman, of Evanston, Ill. and Miss Frances Hadfield, of Mil- waukee, vs. Miss Blanche P. Graham, of Columbus, Ohio.

Suzanne Will See Giant Card Game

NEW YORK — Miss Suzanne Langlen planned to see a baseball game today for the first time. She expected to attend the contest be- tween the Athletics and the Cardinals at the Polo grounds.

"Ever since I became interested in sports I have been eager to see your great American game," she said. "I might surprise Americans to know that we in France read much concerning the national sport of this country. The fame of your Babe Ruth is well known to us. We have heard a great deal of other noted players such as Speaker and Cobb and Hornsby."

Jack Is Lonesome

It's true that a ball precedes a big season. After it's over, one after another, the players can't under- stand why he hasn't got callous on his heels caused by would-be legitimate challengers crowding him. The champ probably has forgotten that all these second-raters attended the Jersey City matinee and got the tip straight that he hasn't gone back far enough for them to make it in- teresting for him and the cash cus- tomers.

Kid Gleason's Young

Kid Gleason, 37 and manager of the Chicago White Sox, doesn't like being called "Pop."

And in strength, personally, and pep he is far from being in the arm- chair category.

Gleason can possibly whip any ball player his size—and a lot of them who are bigger.

And in the old days, it is said, the Kid had to resort to this means of hussing his players.

Walker is Out

Bob Meusel's Strong Arm Serves Him Better In Field Than In Box

It is not at all likely that Bob Meusel, the big right fielder of the Yankees, will now yearn for fame as a pitcher. In fact, he renounced the pitching mound in favor of the outfield in the dawn of his career, but he still retains something of his skill.

The power of Meusel's deadly right arm is now famed the country over. He can siege gun the ball home a mile a minute from the depths of the outfield, but ability to make long throws does not neces- sarily imply ability to shoot the ball thru as pitchers can. But Meusel can do both. He has a fast ball that puts Shawkey and Collins to shame, and, as a matter of fact, there are not three hurlers in the league at this time who can serve up a speedier ball than long Robert. Considering that he is an outfielder, and not a pitcher, his control is all that might be asked.

Not so very long ago this season, when the Senators were at the Polo Grounds, Meusel went into the box and pitched to the batters during practice. He first served them over for Babe Ruth, and to the wonder- ment of the mob shot three fast balls thru the groove while Babe swung too late, Jim Shaw, the Washington pitcher, watched Meusel for a while and said: "I wish I had a fast ball like that. Why he's pegging them past the big fel- low, and Babe's trying to hit him, too. He should make a whale of a hurler."

American Golfers Meet Foreign Born

CLEVELAND, O.—The proposed match play between teams represent- ing the east and west which was to have inaugurated the Western Open Golf tournament at the Oakwood club today has been changed to an 18-hole link between American and foreign born professionals. The change was occasioned by the inabil- ity of the eastern leaders to muster a team of sufficient numbers in time.

Tommy Kerrigan, Siouxay pro- fessional, who was to have piloted the eastern team will captain the Americans. Emmet French, of Longtown, is to play on the team. York Hildreth will captain the An- glo-Scottish brigade.

The match will be played this after- noon. Caps have been offered as prizes by the Oakwood club.

SENTIMENT

Wallie Pipp, slender first base guard for the Yanks, wants to be in a world series this fall for his father's sake.

Of course, Wallie would enjoy the spoils as much as the average Amer- ican, but Mr. Pipp Sr. is a terrific fan.

The elderly Pipp is vice president of an enamelware plant at Torrington, Conn., but he spends most of his summers following Wallie and the Yanks around.

He gets more pleasure in seeing son Wallie foul one than he does out of watching Babe Ruth hoist one clear out into the country air.

FINAL DETAILS

DETROIT, Mich. — Final details of the regatta which opens Saturday are being worked out today by the Gold Cup-Harnsworth regatta com- mittee. With the arrival from New York of the special fuel required by the Maple Leaf VII, the British en- try in the Harnsworth race was to be given her first trial run in De- troit river late today.

CYLINDER RE-GRINDING

Double Plays Are Feature In Brave Pirates Contest

Two unassisted double plays were made by Boston National players—Barbare and Boeckel—against Pitts- burgh yesterday. Boeckel aided Barbare in another double play. The Braves made a splendid uphill bat- tle in a vain attempt to overcome a 9 to 0 lead, outbating Hamilton and Zina and scoring upon Carlson. Pittsburgh won by the score of 10 to 8.

Home runs by McHenry and Horns- by of St. Louis were responsible for five of the six Cardinal runs. Per- tica blanked New York with three hits. The defeat put the Giants 7 1-2 games behind Pittsburgh.

Cy Williams' home run in the twelfth inning gave the Philadelphia Nationals a victory over Chicago. Despite three two base hits by Manager Speaker, Cleveland dropped a close game to Boston.

Thirteen New York American players batted in the sixth inning, scoring eight runs. Four of these were due to Meusel's home run and single.

Harness Nags At Poughkeepsie Meet

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. — With the Breeders' Club sweepstakes and the Knickerbocker trot as features and good weather prevailing, fast time is expected in the Grand Cir- cuit race meeting which opens here this afternoon.

The Great Marie, who has made a mark of 2:17 1-4, will start against time during the meeting.

NEW SHADE

Coach Robert Zuppke figures out football a little finer every year. This year he had a little talk with the Illinois psychologists and found out that orange-colored jerseys got better results than blue.

According to the traditional blue of Illini will change to the more effi- cient orange this fall.

Zuppke's color scheme is the first colorful football story that's come out so far this year.

Yanks Open Series At Cleveland

CLEVELAND, O.—The New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians open a three game series here today. The world's champions were lead- ing their eastern rivals by a game and a half. It was the third time this year they have met so closely bunched in the league standing that a game or two could change the lead.

Previous to today, New York had won nine of the fifteen games played with the Indians this season. How- ever, they were more effective dur- ing the first two series, when they won five out of eight games with scores of 16 to Cleveland's 40. Of the last seven games played, Cleve- land has won three, scoring 44 runs against New York's 40.

Another For Reds

BROOKLYN (Special).— Pull- ing thru many tight holes by his ef- fective hurling, Adolpho Luque, Cuban moundman of Pat Moran's, did his bit toward the Red's 7 to 5 victory over the Dodgers in the sec- ond game of the series taken by the Redlegs.

The Reds scored all their runs in the early innings off Leon Cadore who hurled the first seven sessions. Miljus relieved him. Both teams got an equal number of hits, but the Reds seemed to have the knack of procuring their bingles when they were most needed.

The score:
Cincinnati 300 130 000—7—10—1
Brooklyn . 030 000 002—5—10—4

Batteries: Luque and Hargrave; Cadore, Miljus and Krueger.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it. They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!

Give us a glimpse of Mabel as we used to know her: She's a washerwoman's daughter and is as wicked
and unbearable as always. Then,
about in the middle of the picture,
she takes unto herself a husband,
and the dramatics begin. As Mabel herself says:
"It's not at all hard to be dramatic when one is married."

Mabel, you know, is Irish, and
there's going to be all the tenderness, wit and humor, poetry, human-appeal and adventure which characterizes this race in "Molly-O."

Did you ever see a picture which epitomized the actress herself? Well,
that's "Molly-O."

There's a chorus, too, with a few

Cecile Paquin and Co. present a se-

MOVIE SECRETS ARE REVEALED

Q—When you see an actor talking to himself on the screen, do you know how it is done?

A—This is accomplished by what is known as a double exposure. These can be made in three different ways,
the split stage, the transparent ex-posure and the oblique dissolve. The first of these, which is the simplest,
will be explained here today. The other two methods will be revealed in subsequent issues. In the split stage double exposure one half of the film in the camera is masked or covered with a brass disc while the other half is exposed with the actor
to be "double-exposed" in position on the stage. When the necessary number of feet of film is exposed
the actor reverses his position back in the camera and the mask is shifted to cover the exposed half of the film. Then as the actor portrays the other half of his dual role it is recorded on the unexposed half of the film. It is in this manner that scenes are made of the same person who is shown talking to himself.
In making a scene of this kind the camera must not be moved even a fraction of an inch and the actor

must be very careful how he moves about the stage that he does not get out of focus. All his movements are regulated by the counting of the director so that they shall be in harmony with the movements of his other self on the other half of the film.

Q—Where is David Powell now?
A—Powell is now working in the London, Eng., studio of Famous Players.

Q—What was Olive Thomas' last picture?

A—Her last picture she made just before her fatal trip to Paris
and which was not shown until after her death was entitled "Everybody's Sweetheart."

Q—How old is Lucille Ricksen,
the famous child actress?

A—Lucille is 12 years old and can be addressed in care of the Goldwyn studios, Los Angeles.

Q—What two screen actors both appeared in screen versions of Mark Twain's famous story "Huckleberry Finn?"

A—This story was filmed twice,

the first time with Lewis Sargent as the featured player, and the second time with Jack Pickford.

What movie actress so closely resembled the late Olive Thomas that she is to be starred by the same company which starred Miss Thomas?

The name of Olive's double will be given in this department tomorrow.
Movie questions asked by readers of this column will be answered by the Movie Secrets Editor if you will address him in care of this paper,
giving your name and address.

SHORT SHAVINGS

"I don't like a friend to domineer over me," said the young man with the patient disposition.

"Who has been doing that?"
"My roommate. He borrowed my dress suit."
"That's a good deal of liberty."
"I don't mind it, but when he asked for my umbrella I told him I might want to use it myself. But he got it just the same."
"How?"
"He simply said: 'Have your own way. They're your clothes that I'm trying to keep from getting spoiled, not mine.'"

How carefully the children of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. are kept in ignorance of the fact that they are prospective heirs to the greatest fortune in the world is illustrated by a story Mr. Rockefeller told recently.
Mr. Rockefeller has an estate at Seal Harbor, Me., where John D. Rockefeller, III, his eldest son, has been amusing himself with a very old and very dilapidated rowboat, at which a neighbor's boy, a Seal Harbor native, turned up his nose.
"Why don't you have a motor boat?" asked the native lad.
"Gee whizz? Who do you think we are—Vanderbilts?" asked the grandson of the world's richest man.

"If Foch had been an Englishman—" began an officer in a mess half a hundred miles behind the lines, to be interrupted disgustingly by his senior with: "Foch! Foch! If Foch had been an Englishman they'd have made him into a poor old area commander, to look after the Chinese and see the billets were clean—like they've blankety-blank well done with me!"

Mrs. SELCHERT'S DAUGHTER

Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Horicon, Wis.—"My young daughter had been troubled for several months with backache and a bad feeling in her stomach. When she got to the table to eat she did not want anything, while before she was so hungry she could hardly wait for her dinner. The doctors gave her medicine but it did not help her. One day I was reading a little book of yours which was left on my porch and it reminded me that when I was a young girl I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So she went to the drug store and got a bottle and after the second one she could eat and has not had backache since. In all she took six bottles of it. She goes to school and on Saturdays helps with the housework. She is a normal, healthy girl now and we recommend your medicine. You have my permission to publish this letter as a testimonial for the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FRANK SELCHERT, 150 Larabee St., Horicon, Wis.

Mothers all over the country have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to be a most reliable remedy for such conditions.
